DVR Holds Workshop At U. of Illinois

Thirty-six Illinois special education teachers and 14 counselors from the State of Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitation began a four-day conference at the U. of Illinois August 22 aimed at learning each other's role in preparing educable mentally handicapped youth to become independent, productive citizens.

Carol Marie Koch, 1964 Main St. junior high EMH teacher of the special education district of Lake County, was one of those attending the conference.

During the last several years the DVR has embarked on an intensive effort to develop cooperative work experience program with secondary schools serving educable mentally handicapped children.

However, neither DVR counselors nor special class teachers are completely acquainted with the responsibilities and limitations of the other. Through the workshop at Urbana it is hoped an exchange of fundamental information will result in establishing better lines of communication between the two groups.

Voters O.K. Emmons School Bond Issue

Voters in the Emmons School District south of Antioch last Saturday approved a $185,000 bond issue for an addition and repairs to the school. At the same time, they rejected for the second time an increase of 21c in the educational tax.

The building bond issue passed with 149 yes votes and 145 no votes, with 3 spoiled ballots. The educational tax increase was defeated by one vote, 146 to 145, with six spoiled ballots. A spoiled ballot figured in the defeat of the building bond issue on June 4. The vote was 138 yes, 137 no at that election, with one spoiled ballot. Because Emmons has a three-man Board of Directors, referendums must have a majority of the votes cast. With 276 votes cast, including the spoiled ballot, exactly one-half the votes approved the bond issue, and one more was needed for passage.

The vote on the educational tax at that time was 131 yes, 138 no.

Better Traffic Law Enforcement Needed To Reduce Fatalities, Post Says

What happens to drivers involved in fatal accidents in Lake County?

Bob Post, Director of the Lake County Safety Commission, sought an answer to this question. He investigated eighteen cases where a traffic citation was issued at a fatal accident in 1965-66.

Eight of the cases were dismissed or found not guilty; six received some fines; one case was dismissed, one forfeited bond and two cases are still pending.

Post points out that circuit court judges now hear all traffic cases. The judge must, in accordance with the law, hear the evidence as presented by the prosecutor and defense attorney, and then make his decision.

If there is no one present to prosecute the case, he must dismiss the case for lack of prosecution. The policeman who issued the citation is just a witness and cannot act as prosecutor.

Investigation showed that in two cases a Coroner's jury had recommended that a person be held for the Grand Jury on charges of Reckless Homicide. One accident occurred in Dec. 1965, the other in March 1966. The State's Attorney's office reports that neither has been presented to the Grand Jury.

Post says, "Traffic experts know that enforcement of traffic laws reduces accidents, but enforcement does not mean just the issuing of tickets. It also means following through by prosecutors and making the penalty fit the crime."

"Unless persons fear the consequences for reckless driving, speeding, drunken driving on revoked or suspended licenses, etc., our traffic fatalities will continue to increase."

Reckers To Attend Ill. Bankers School

Preston J. Reckers, Jr., Assistant Cashier, State Bank of Antioch, will leave Sunday for two weeks of study at the Illinois Bankers School at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois.

The School, sponsored by the Illinois Bankers Association, requires attendance at two summer sessions of two weeks each. Extension work involving problems in all phases of banking must also be completed by the students to earn their certificates of graduation.

Mr. Reckers, along with 75 other Illinois bankers, will be attending his first session August 29 through Sept. 9.

Approximately 85% of the School's faculty consists of well-known bankers who are specialists in their particular fields; other outstanding instructors are selected from areas of industry, law, and education.

Bristol Band To Play Concert

Charmglow Products, Inc., of Bristol, Wis., and Antioch will present a band concert in Antioch Sunday, September 4, at 8 p.m. The famous Bristol Farmers' Band will furnish the music and the concert will be held on Broadway, just south of the water tower.

The Bristol Farmers' Band is an organization of professional musicians with headquarters at Central High School, Salem. The band is under the management of and directed by Miss Bessie Barnes, Wilmet.

Members of the band are from Kenosha, Lake and McHenry counties. The band numbers forty or fifty members at full strength. When the band plays its Antioch engagement, it will consist of forty pieces.

Miss Gretchen Cardwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cardwell, operators of the Antioch Dairy Queen, will be the featured soloist with the band, and Miss Diane Hein of Bristol will be the queen of baton twirling.

A public address system will be set up by Truman Garrett, of Trevor, so people attending the concert may sit in their cars to enjoy the music. There will be no charge for the concert.

Six Pet Skunks Exposed To Rabies

Six families in Lake County may be exposed to rabies by having pet skunks, Dr. Wawirka, Lake County Rabies Inspector, has warned.

Six skunks purchased recently from a local pet store were part of a shipment of 40 brought into the state. One of these skunks died from rabies at Brookfield Zoo Aug. 3.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts or having one of these skunks is requested to call Dr. Wawirka at 438-7877 immediately.

317 cases of rabies were reported in Illinois during 1965. 158 of these cases were in skunks, 80 in cats.

These four young people will portray 60 different characters in PM&L's production of Spoon River Anthology. Top, Lloyd Pedersen, Bob Thomley, Bottom, Mavouneen Reardon and Heather Hunley.

TV Star To Join Benefit Golf Tourney

Buddy Hackett, of television and movie fame, will be one of the golfers who will play in the golf tournament at Midlane Farms Country Club Sunday, August 28.

The tournament is being played for the benefit of the Grove School for Handicapped Children.

Mr. Hackett has two reasons for wanting to attend the golf tournament—he has a godchild who is at Grove School, and he wants to meet the wounded Viet Nam Veterans who will be guests at the tournament. The children from Grove School will also attend the tourney.

Hackett will be accompanied by Don Cherry, singer with Hackett at the Palmer House in Chicago, where they are now appearing. The other two members of their foursome will be "Hubby" Habjan, golf pro from Onwentsia, and Bob Harris, pro from the Sunset Ridge Country Club. The four will tee off immediately after Admiral's Yeager's foursome, the first one of the day.

Minor Fires Cause Damage

A fire early Monday morning at the Dog N' Suds on Route 173 west of Antioch damaged the interior and caused the drive-in to close for repairs for a couple of days.

The eating place was re-opened late Tuesday, after a clean-up job and replacement of some of the interior.

A shorted wire, apparently near the coffee pots, was believed to have started the blaze. The fire alarm was turned in about 6 a.m. Monday by a passerby. The Antioch Fire Department quickly extinguished the blaze, after breaking open a rear door.

Owners of the place, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cornelius, said counter-tops were burned and there was smoke damage to walls, ceilings and supplies.

The Fire Department was called to the home of Joe Sible, Venn's Island Road, west of Antioch, about 5 a.m. Wednesday morning. A gas heater set walls of the home on fire. Firemen estimated that about $700 damage was done.

H. S. Budget Up 8.3 Per Cent

The budget for the 1966-67 school year at Antioch Community High School approved Wednesday night at the meeting of the Board of Education, was 8.3% higher than last year's budget, or $87,843 more.

Superintendent Albert Dittman said the increase is due to several reasons, mainly the increase in prices on all items and the increase in the number of pupils. Teachers' salaries are a larger item, with three teachers added to the number on the staff; food prices are higher, increasing cafeteria costs; all supplies are higher priced; and funds expended under the National Education Act, $11,000 this year for a special reading program, are included in the budget although the money comes from the Federal government.

Mr. Dittman announced that the teaching staff had been completed with the hiring of Miss JoAnn Owen as Girls' Physical Education teacher. Miss Owen will also sponsor the GAA and color guard.

Ten new teachers are employed at the school this fall, seven of whom are replacements.

The board approved the request of Bonnie Becker, Wadsworth, to enter the school as a tuition student. Bonnie is a senior.

The board appointed Roger Prossie to the Advisory Committee of the Tri-County Division of the Illinois Association of School Boards.

Pollard & Wheeler, Certified Public Accountants of Rockford, were employed to audit the 1965-66 accounts of the school.

The board approved the student handbook, which contains rules of conduct for students. Two changes were made in the book this year—a penalty for misuse of the fire alarm system, and rules clarifying the selection of the valedictorian and salutatorian.

Valedictorian and salutatorian are selected on the basis of their grades for the eight semesters they attend High School. Mr. Dittman commented that there was occasionally a mistaken idea on the part of parents that grades from the last semester were not included.

Mr. Dittman and Warren

Polley gave a report on classroom use to the board, which showed that all classrooms are in use 80% of the school day. This includes such special areas as Home Economics rooms, Industrial Arts, etc.

Academic classrooms are in use 90% of the school day, the report showed. There are 46 classrooms in the school.

Medical Assistants Form Organization

By Bernice Bernau

The Lake County Medical Assistants Association was organized at a meeting last Wednesday at the office of Dr. E. R. Abderholden in Antioch.

Mrs. Stoffel is treasurer of the Illinois Medical Assistants Association. Mrs. Hubert (Zelma) Bechtol was installed as president; Miss Esther Barouth, vice president; Mrs. Gus (June) Eckert, secretary, and Mrs. Steve (Janet) Krumm, treasurer.

Meetings of the new group will be held at different locations each month, with the next meeting at the office of Dr. Abderholden September 21 at 7:30 p.m. Medical assistants in Lake County are invited to attend.

Wins Regional CAR Oratorical Contest

Miss Heather Hunley, 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hunley, of the Rio-Val Pony Farm, Antioch, won first place in the six state regional oratorical contest sponsored by the Children of the American Revolution in Dearborn, Mich.

Miss Hunley represented the State of Illinois and her original oration was entitled: "An American Citizen's Responsibilities Before the Law: Those Obligations Which Insure His Rights."

Heather will next compete in the National contest in Washington, D. C., during Continental Congress in the Spring.

A.C.H.S. Band Wins Governor's Trophy

The Antioch Community High School Band won the Governor's Trophy at the Illinois State Fair last week as the best of 41 high school and elementary school bands.

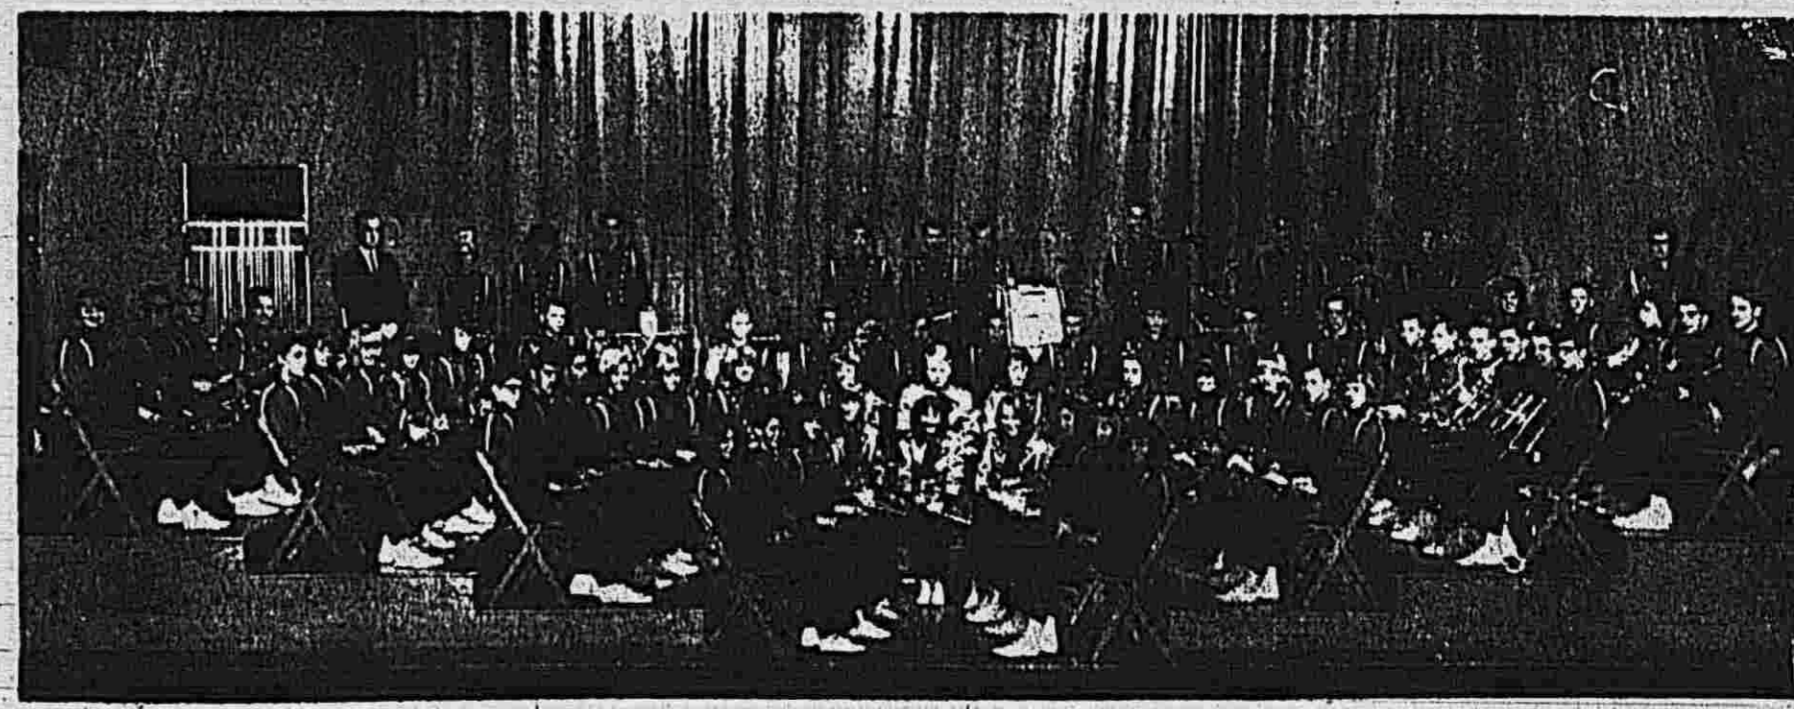

The Antioch band was competing in the fair's annual band contest. Governor Otto Kerner appeared at the contest just in time to hear the Antioch band of 64 musicians play. Joseph Rush directs the band.

George W. Patrick, superintendent of the band contest, announced that the Antioch band had won the trophy.

The Antioch High School Band has won a Superior rating each year for the several years that they have been competing at the Fair. Joe Rush, Director of the Band, is at present in Boone, Indiana, where he was invited to instruct at Staff Kenton's Stage Band Camp at Indiana University. Two members of the Antioch Band are also in Boone studying at the Music Camp. The two boys are Randall Rich and Glen Erickson.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

At long last, the Congress is taking official note of the violence and rioting which are occurring throughout the land.

The first congressional recognition appeared in the House Un-American Activities Committee, where an investigation in depth was made of the notorious Ku Klux Klan. These hearings revealed various interstate conspiracies to commit acts of violence as well as other unlawful activities of certain Klan leaders.

Following the conclusion of the hearings Congressman Edwin E. Willis of Louisiana, Chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, sponsored several bills—one of which would prohibit certain activities of "clandestine" organizations such as the Klan. As explained by Congressman Willis, his bill is "based on the conviction that the U. S. Constitution does not condone or protect organized harassment of, or the terrorizing, flogging, beating, mutilation, injuring or killing of American citizens by any group on any pretext."

He added that his measure "was designed to protect the lives and persons of all American citizens against the organized efforts of any clandestine group which uses force, violence or any unlawful means to impose its political, economic, social or other policies, practices or beliefs on others, or attempts to punish others because they do not conform to, or because they act contrary to, the policies, practices or beliefs of the organization."

A portion of the Civil Rights Act of 1966 recently passed by the U.S. House of Representatives is aimed at protecting civil rights workers and demonstrators. However, the Members of the House overwhelmingly adopted an amendment, offered by Congressman William Cramer of Florida, directed against Communists and other instigators of riots and other violent disturbances in connection with civil rights activities. This amendment reflected public demand to end the violence which is occurring in many of our large cities.

The amendment also stands out as a clear rebuke to those who under the guise of civil rights have committed acts of vandalism, arson, theft, assaults, and murder.

In urging support of his amendment, Congressman Cramer declared on the Floor of the House, "It is high time that the Congress recognizes that the term 'civil rights' has a broad application to all people's rights. The property owner whose building is burned to the ground has lost certain of his civil rights. The woman who was shot in the head and lost her life lost all of her civil rights."

These are basic rights which are crying out for protection. When the roll was called on this amendment, it was adopted by a resounding vote of 389 to 25.

Whatever the final outcome of either or both of these measures, the conclusion is inescapable—the United States House of Representatives is determined to take firm and effective action against rioting in the streets of our cities and against those who in the names of freedom and civil rights are promoting violence, looting and other unlawful acts.

DOESN'T SEEM RIGHT
Congressman Alvin E. O'Konski of Wisconsin tells the story of two brothers in his home district. One brother was valedictorian of his graduating class. He is serving in Viet Nam for $78 a month. The other brother is a dropout who once beat up his mother and his teacher. He is serving in the War on Poverty's Neighborhood Youth Corps and is getting $200 a month.

When one condemns the processes of a free market, as he is doing when he endorses any form or degree of price control, he is invalidating the rights of either buyer or seller," says author F. A. Harper.

Hughes is expected to have strong church support in Waukegan and this influence may be strong enough to reach into the other church groups in the county to boost his chances.

Village board meetings have their light side, too. Like the last one, when trustee Bob Wilton came in to find a charming bouquet set in front of his place at the council table.

The bouquet was composed of thistle, ragweed, and Queen Anne's lace, tastefully arranged by artistically-bent David Nissen. Bob was not overly grateful at this gesture of "affection" from his fellow-trustees, as he suffers acutely from hay fever.

Bob Haubrich, personable young county chairman of the Democratic party, evidently really believes that the Democratic party has a future in Lake County, a Republican stronghold from way back.

He stopped in at the office last week to introduce himself and express a few views on county politics. He makes a good case for the well-balanced two-party competition (which would be fine, if that delicate balance could be preserved).

Haubrich says he's working for better organization of the party at the precinct level, and to that end a training workshop for precinct committeemen will be coming up in the near future. Vacancies in the post of precinct committeeman in 20% of the county's precincts have been filled since he took over in June, he says. Better publicity is also on the agenda.

Although he's realistic about the number of Democrats in Lake County, and stresses that his program is long-range, he believes the Democrats have a chance to win the sheriff's post in November, and will send two state representatives to Springfield.

Jack Wells, who has quite a collection of items that are part of the history of the Antioch area would like to see a museum started somewhere around here which would bring together the various collections which trace the history of the area. Antioch News
Antioch, Ill. 00002
Dear Sir:

In view of the recent campus killing in Austin, Texas, perhaps it is time we should register guns. Many families own one or two autos and then they should be registered as a deadly weapon. But, in Chicago when the 8 nurses were killed, some were stabbed. Perhaps it is time then that all knives be registered. Course if we came upon an intruder in our house and he tried to molest us, we housewives wouldn't have to worry—he couldn't use a butcher knife—but neither could we, they are registered. He might have a broken pop or beer bottle which could inflict some mighty bad wounds and even death. It might be a good idea to register all kinds of weapons that kill. But what good would it do because criminals will get a weapon someplace and still to keep, but hate to discard, because they have historic significance. Jack's dream is a museum of Antioch area historic articles. And wouldn't it be wonderful, to gather all these relics in one spot for permanent viewing? A good project for any club that's looking for a lot of work.

perform mass murder. The laws are getting to the point where the criminal is protected. Justice of the Supreme Court, Earl Warren would prefer to protect all communists, whose goal is to communise the whole world and leave millions dead in their paths (which they have already done in the countries they have taken over).

But then if all kinds of instruments that kill would be registered—we would have less to worry about, and I wonder who these people are that would do the registering. If two people got in a fight on a street corner they would not be able to kill each other—unless one picked up a stone. Oh yes, stones should be registered too—they might be used as a weapon to kill.

Sincerely,
Shirley S. Spacek

BY LOU DURKIN

The withdrawal of Grayslake Atty. William Hartnett as a candidate for State Representative on the Democratic ticket has caused considerable stir in party circles and even among the Republicans.

Hartnett, an incumbent, was teamed with John Matijevich, police chief of North Chicago, and many observers gave the duo a good chance to score an upset by winning two of the available three seats.

It is still possible for the Democratic representative committeemen to select a candidate to replace Hartnett on the ballot, but it is unlikely since he would scarcely have time to get established well enough to defeat Matijevich, incumbent John Conolly, of Grunee, or W. J. Murphy, of Antioch, who is making a comeback.

Hartnett cited increasing pressure of his law practice as a reason for withdrawing from the race, but politics being what they are few people are willing to accept this as the real reason.

Whatever additional reasons there may be for the decision Hartnett will probably remain an active figure in the Democratic party.

Hartnett's decision assures Murphy's return to the state legislature although he was a heavy favorite to win a spot in the four man race anyhow.

Despite the change in conditions Murphy will probably continue to campaign hard in order to top the ticket thus enhancing his chances of election as Speaker of the House when the General Assembly is organized in January.

With Murphy's return assured, it appears now that the legislators who were read out of the Republican Party two years ago will be coming back to take their places, in some instances bumping blue ribbon Republicans and in others ousting Democrats.

Thus the infamous purge of legislators who had been approved by the voters in their districts winds up in gloriously with only one lasting effect: lingering bitterness in the party ranks and the continuing burden of the blame for Charles Percy.

The leading roles played by State Treasurer William Scott and Cook County Sheriff Richard Ogilvie are largely forgotten by most voters, but many supporters of Murphy and the other ousted legislators still hold Percy responsible and are finding it difficult to give him whole-hearted support.

The turnout at the picnic and barbecue hosted by Paul Serdar, prominent Wadsworth mink rancher, for Murphy last week indicate that the former House Majority Leader actually benefited from the ill-conceived ouster movement.

The turnout included many Republicans who had fought Murphy in the past, but were on hand at the picnic to wish him well and to assure him of support.

Many of the crowd were surprised at the spirit of harmony that prevailed among the various GOP camps and there was a feeling of optimism that perhaps there is a chance for a united effort in November.

Waukegan Magistrate John L. Hughes, who is the Democratic candidate for Associate Judge in the judicial election, should benefit considerably by the withdrawal from the campaign of Bill Hartnett.

As the lone Democratic candidate Hughes has a chance to win one of the two bench posts if the Democrats concentrate on his election.

With Hartnett out of the race and the other county candidates given only small chances of victory, Hughes stands out as the best hope of the Democrats.

The GOP judicial convention Tuesday is bound to result in charges that the nominations were "bought" or "pressured" putting added strain on harmony efforts and possibly opening the door for the Waukegan attorney.

Hughes is expected to have strong church support in Waukegan and this influence may be strong enough to reach into the other church groups in the county to boost his chances.

The John W. Horan, Jr. family have recently returned from a 17 day vacation trip to California. Two of their sons went swimming in Salt Lake, at Salt Lake City, Utah, and did not find the experience too much fun! They saw the Mormon Temple and the State Capitol. While there they saw an Antique Auto Show parade, and admired the Hupmobiles and Pierce Arrows and many other cars of ancient vintage. The Tioga Pass into Yosemite Valley led the Horan family through the Sequoia Trees Preserves, known locally as the "big trees." Since they drove in a tunnel right through one of the largest trees, "big trees" seems to be a most appropriate title for them. A deer came right up to their car, but they weren't dismayed that they missed seeing any bears! The waterfalls at Yosemite were beautiful.

At Santa Barbara, California, they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doerr and Mrs. Margaret Hostetter, former Antioch residents. Mrs. Doerr is the former Leona Hostetter.

The Doerrs took them to see the famed Santa Barbara Fiesta Parade. The people in their colorful costumes, mounted on fine horses, with silver trappings, made this an outstanding parade. Both Governor Brown and the "Cisco Kid" were in this parade.

On a side trip, they visited Solung, a Dutch village, with Dutch food, china, etc., and windmills dotting the landscape. Back in Santa Barbara, they viewed the largest fig tree in the world, with a diameter of 150 feet. Every home and building in Santa Barbara must follow the Spanish style, with their county court house completely modeled in the Spanish motif.

On their return trip, they stopped to make a tour of a Thomas Organ Factory (Warwick Industries) at Sepulveda, Calif. As Mrs. Horan has her own Thomas Organ, she was happy to have this chance of seeing how these organs are constructed.

At Marineland, they saw "Flipper", the porpoise, perform his many tricks, and also saw the screen star, Michael Rennie. They spent two days at Disneyland, and had a delicious dinner at Knott's Berry Farm.

They drove through the desert and in Arizona were shocked at the poor living conditions of the Hopi Indians in their mud shacks. The Horans purposely drove through St. Louis in order to see the massive 400 ft. high arch there, signifying "The Gateway to the West." They stopped at Springfield, and saw Lincoln's Tomb and home there. Now, at home in Antioch, they can relive their wonderful vacation, watching their colored films of all their travels.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolsfeld and son, George, of Wheaton surprised the Ed Jahneke family, Beach Grove, Thursday of last week. George Wolsfeld was a former classmate of Ed, Jr., at the Onarga Military School.

The Ray Rathmann family, Oakwood Knolls, are back from their camping trip around Lake Michigan in a travel trailer. At Holland, Mich., they decided to see how wooden shoes are made,

Have Lamp, Will Study

Any parent knows it's next to impossible to get youngsters to sit quietly while studying... today's student belongs to the go-go generation and his study habits reflect his energetic mobility.

That's why the mobile Tensor lamp is finding such great popularity with students everywhere. Easily totable from room to room, the lamp provides close-to-daylight conditions and is ideal for close eye-work.

Its high-intensity white light is glare-free eliminating eye strain for studious youngsters, especially important when long hours of homework are on the agenda.

It's small size allows privacy in lighting and minimizes distraction for the all-too-easily distracted youngster.

Short Cuts To Laundry Ease

Mom's family seems to double when the school bells ring each fall. Though it may not be larger in number, it certainly is in laundry.

For example, when many changes of clothes collect and you find you have a larger-than-normal laundering load to deal with, you'll save time if you have a washer with big family capacity. At the same time, of course, you want a unit to give maximum cleaning performance uniformly throughout the load.

You can save considerable ironing of play clothes if you take such items as T-shirts and jeans out of the dryer right after it stops. Many wrinkles can be eliminated by smoothing the warm clothes with your hand as you fold them, experts suggest.

and visited a wooden shoe factory. The rough shaping of the machine is done by machine, but all the rest of the work is still done by hand. Although they were not allowed to tour the Atomic Power Plant at Big Rock Point, Mich., they did see a model of the plant, and movies of its operations. The Rathmanns were on Mackinac Island, and took a "horse and buggy" ride around the island. The only motorized vehicles allowed there, are a fire engine, ambulance, and other vehicles for emergency use.

They drove over Mackinac bridge to Upper Michigan. At Sault Ste. Marie, they watched the large boats going through the locks. They saw the lovely upper and lower Tahquamenon Falls, and also explored Fort Mackinac, built in 1780 by the British. Near Copper Harbor, Mich., they went through another fort—Fort Wilkins, constructed in 1844, to protect the copper miners from the Chippewa Indians. This fort has all its original wooden buildings still standing there intact.

A brief call at Hayward, Wis., to see Mrs. Rathmann's sister, and then on home to Antioch, completed their vacation.

The weatherman really put a damper on the Antioch Moose Picnic held at Lake Shangri-La Sunday, August 21. Last year there were about 300 families that attended the picnic. This year they averaged about 200, but in spite of the weather those that attended, seemed to enjoy themselves. The water tank as usual was a big attraction. The horseshoe tournament promoted by Ralph Gussarson, was also a big attraction with Mr. Ronnie Polson taking first place, William Kohl second, and William Woodruff third.

The children who participated in the games were very pleased with their prizes. Some even went swimming in the cool waters and all of them enjoyed following the clown, Wally Good, who was passing out balloons and goodies.

The Governor, Richard Jorgensen was pleased with all the families that did attend and he would like to say thanks to all who helped make it successful. He was sure that more families would have attended had the weather not scared them away.

Fashion Show of Furs To Open New Salon

Descendants of 15 mink purchased 30 years ago will be guests of honor at a double celebration being hosted by Paul and Harriet Serdar at the Imperial Mink Ranch and Harriet's Imperial Furs, Wadsworth Rd., Wadsworth Tuesday, Sept. 6.

A fur fashion show highlighted by special creations of America's leading fur fashion designers will herald the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Ranch and the formal opening of Harriet's Imperial Furs.

Special guests at the celebration will include Barry Coward, President of the Hudson's Bay Co.; Clara Mora, winner of this year's top award for fashion designing, and representatives of leading furriers.

The present Imperial ranch herd was the result of a detour taken by Serdar 30 years ago when he and his bride of three days were returning from their honeymoon in Milwaukee.

The detour took them to a small southeastern Wisconsin mink ranch which Serdar frequently visited while engaged in genetic and dietetic research for Abbott Laboratories, North Chicago, where he was employed as a research technician.

On an impulse Serdar purchased 11 female and four male mink which he originally planned to use for further research. Instead, however, he reserved them for breeding purposes and today their offspring make the Imperial Mink Ranch one of the world's leading producers of high fashion color ranch mink.

Already familiar with the possibilities of mutations through controlled breeding and improvements in the pelts which special nutrition could provide, Serdar decided ed to concentrate on producing mutation mink which were just becoming a factor in the fur industry.

Harriet's Imperial Furs came into being this year because many friends sought Serdar's advice and assistance in selecting pelts or fur garments.

The salon, with its elegant antique French furniture, deep-piled rugs and custom wallpaper offers a sharp contrast to the thoroughly masculine room, highlighted by a boar's head, deer antlers, and a leaping martin and other trophies garnered by Serdar, which adorns the salon proper.

The new salon will feature ready to wear mink garments and custom designed items from specially selected Imperial pelts but special creations in leopard, sable, broadtail, Persian lamb and seal will also be available.

Serdar's interest in nutrition and dietetics led to the opening of Imperial Food Specialties which provides special diets for other mink ranches and for household pets, and his interest in genetics led him into horse breeding at his Locust Lawn Farm in nearby Old Mill Creek.

Rifles Beat Redwings In Season's Opener

After a shaky start, the Lake County Rifles finally settled down to defeat the Sheboygan Redwings 35-23 in their Central States Football League opener. The game was played before some 3,500 fans—the largest crowd ever to witness a Sheboygan home game.

In the early minutes of the game, star quarterback Lev Flinn had difficulty finding his receivers when a number of aerials went astray in possible scoring positions. Flinn was quick to recover and performed brilliantly thereafter. He completed 18 passes in 31 attempts for 319 yards and four TD's. His favorite receiver, Warren Nicholas, grabbed three Flinn passes for scores. The other paydirt target was halfback Ron Curry.

Sheboygan was first to dent the scoring column when quarterback Gary Wynveen hit end Dutch Betherow with a 25 yard toss in the first quarter. The conversion was missed, but a few minutes later Sheboygan, in control of the football, moved within field goal distance; and on fourth down, Bill Morrissey split the uprights and added another 3 points to the Redwing lead.

The Rifles were down 9-0 at the start of the second quarter when Flinn began methodically hitting his receivers. A 40-yard heave to Ron Curry put the ball on the Redwing 12 yard line, and Flinn again responded for his first touchdown toss to Nicholas. Wayne Miller converted, and the score stood 9-7 at halftime.

Coach Gene Cichowski regrouped his chargers, and it was a different ball team that came on the field in the third quarter. The Rifles received the kickoff, and on the first series of downs, Flinn tagged Nicholas again and the fleetfooted flankerback danced through the Redwing secondary and raced 72 yards for his second TD of the night. Miller again converted.

Ron Curry intercepted a Redwing pass by Rick Richert, who had come into the Sheboygan lineup to replace injured Gary Wynveen. The Lake Countians, with Flinn at the helm, and the fine running of fullback Kenny Johnson and halfback Tony Seals, were again in striking distance. Flinn was now hitting with deadly accuracy, and Nicholas grabbed his third touchdown of the evening from 17 yards out. Miller again converted.

Sheboygan rebounded when Richert threw 50 yards to Betherow for a Redwing score. Bob Morici converted. The third period ended with the Rifles clutching a slim 21-16 lead.

In the final stanza, Flinn provided more fireworks for the locals with another sustained drive towards the Redwing goal line, climaxed by his fourth touchdown pass to Ron Curry. Miller again provided the PAT.

A few minutes later Rifles linebacker Don Schmidt intercepted another Richert toss and returned it to the opponent 1 yard line. Two plays later, Tony Seals banged into the endzone to put the Rifles on the Board for the fifth time. Miller's magic toe added the 35th point.

With less than two minutes remaining, Sheboygan pounced on a Rifles fumble and capitalized on the miscue when fullback Bill Morici recorded their final tally of the game.

The Rifles amassed 514 yards, 195 on the ground. Tony Seals was the leading ground gainer with 82 yards in 10 carries, for a fine 8.2 yards per carry. Nicholas led the receivers with 9 receptions—good for 3 TD's and 210 yards.

Next week the Rifles entertain the Elmhurst Travelers at Weiss Field in Waukegan Saturday night, August 27, at 8 p.m. This night has been designated Veterans night, and all members of the Lake County American Legion, VFW, Marine Corps League, Navy League, Purple Heart League, AmVets and their auxiliaries are invited to attend the game at special servicemen's price. They must, however, wear their Legionnaire or VFW caps as an area of identification.

A special pre-game color guard presentation is planned for the ball game. Shut-ins may hear the game live on WEEF-FM 103 on their radio dials.

Cossmann Wins Feature Race

Jim Cossmann dashed into the feature lead with only five laps remaining and romped home the winner in the late model stocks at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night to climax a wild and wooly evening of racing thrills. This is the fourth consecutive feature win Cossmann has chalked up at Waukegan.

Ripped and bent metal seemed to be the order of the night, with the first two heat races being of almost demo style. Three black flags were thrown in the first heat and Marty Chapman ended up the winner. A spectacular pileup in the second heat occurred directly in front of the home-stretch grandstands. Al Lucas and Jim Pasley both smashed into the wall. Then Ron Kalous slammed into both cars and ended up dangerously balanced on two wheels, resting on the top of Pasley's car and the trunk of Lucas' convertible. Kalous restarted the race and finished first.

Odell Jones won the third heat and Dennis Burgan took the lead on the final lap to win the fourth heat. Jim Luther won the semi-feature.

Next Saturday night will be the August Championship for the late model stock cars at Waukegan. This program will be highlighted with a 50-lap feature and then a powder puff derby for the ladies. The late models will also race in special events on Labor Day Monday night, with a 25-car demo as the special added attraction.

Scattered showers finally found the Waukegan Speedway and forced cancellation of the scheduled late model and modified stock car racing around 6 p.m. Sunday night. This was the first rainout at the Waukegan oval in over three months, as 29 consecutive events have been written in to the books before then.

Gutchie Wins Wilmot Feature

The fans were on their feet through most of Saturday night's thrilling stock car races at Kenosha County Speedway, Wilmot, as Harold Gutchie of Kenosha won his third feature for the season. Gil Rien of Woodstock miraculously escaped injury when in a second restart of the feature he took a spectacular triple rollover and totally demolished his car.

Other feature crashes wiped out the front end of Jim Boehle's car and put Ron Justen's car out of action. Gutchie almost lost his chance at the feature when he rammed a light pole going into the second turn on the first restart of the feature to avoid a five-car pile-up.

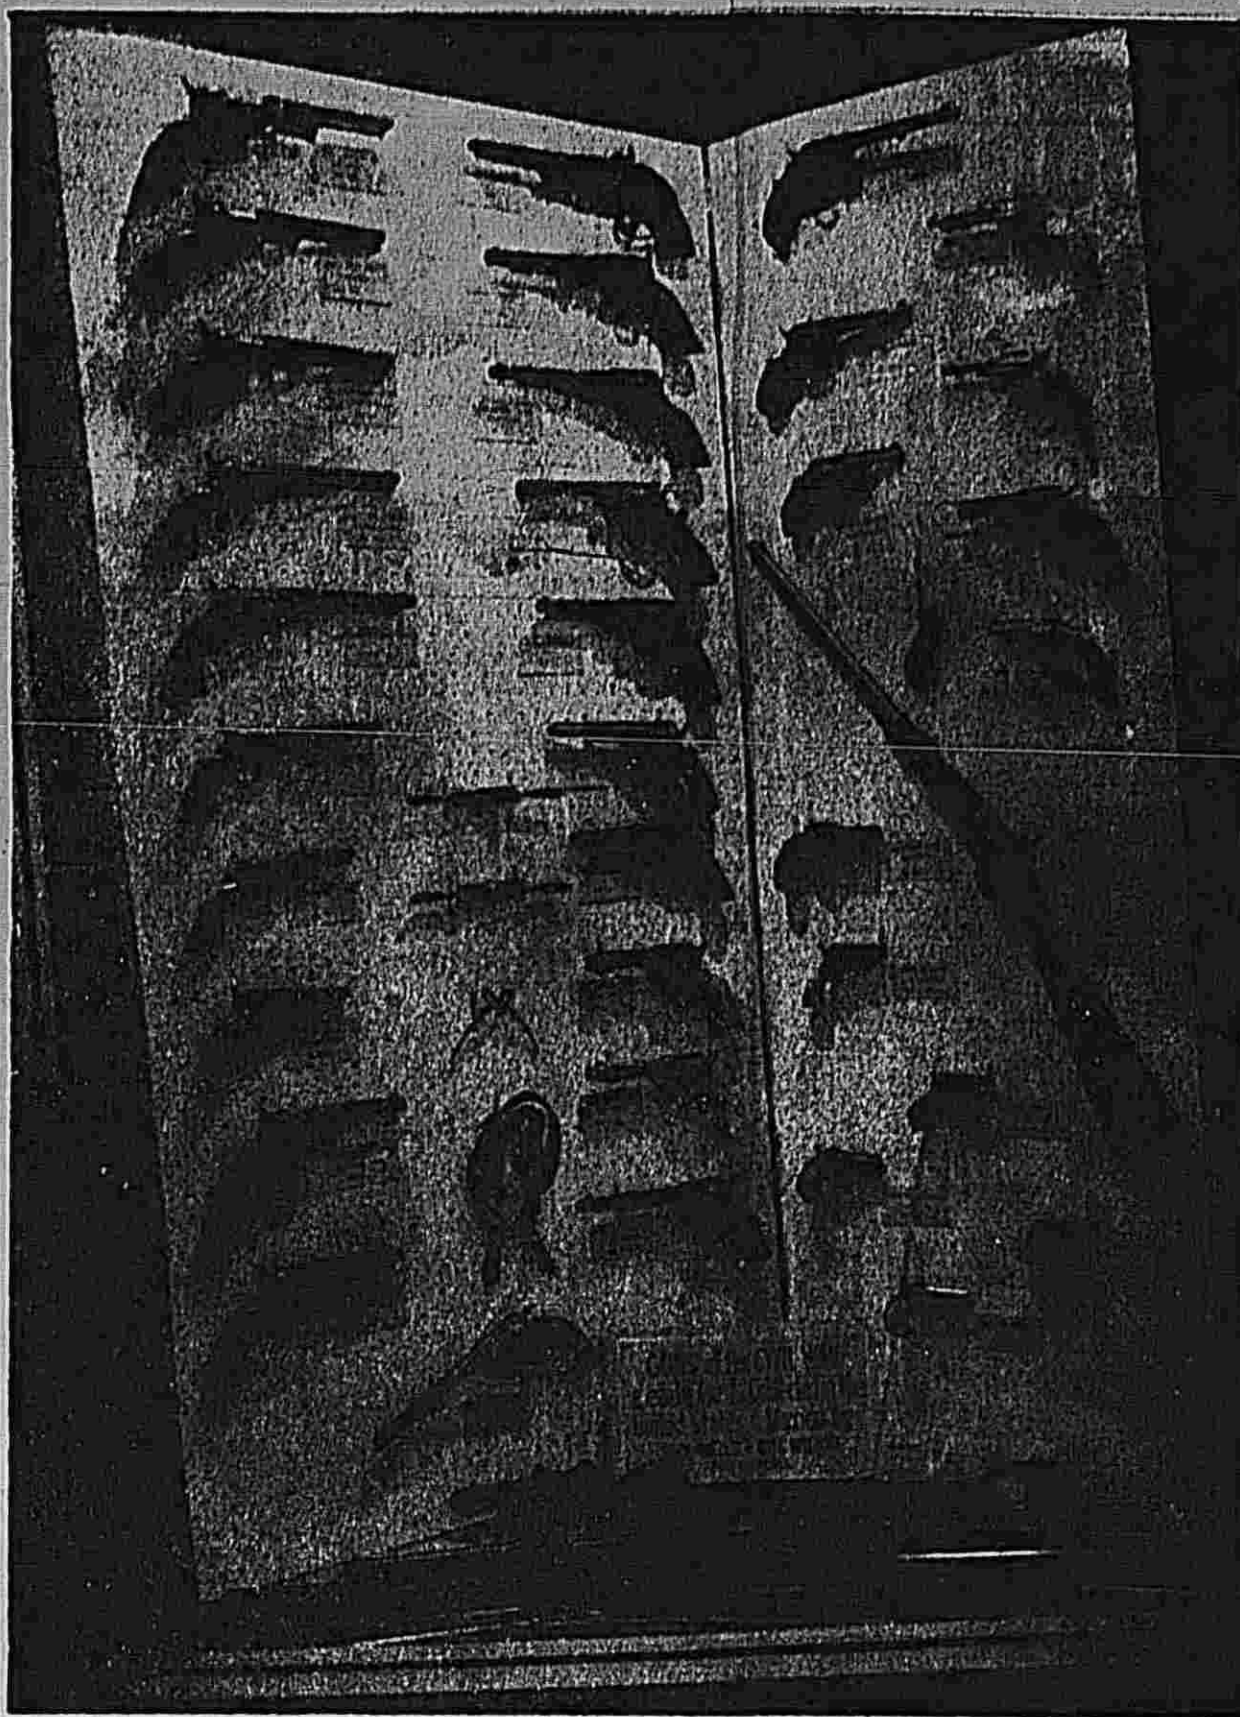

The first restart was necessary when Jumbo Morris of Harvard was forced up on the guard rail in the first turn and got hung up.

Fast qualifier—Ron Justen of McHenry.

Heat winners: 1—Harold Gutchie, Kenosha; 2—Carl Melvin, DeKalb; 3—Harold Gutchie; 4—Roger Hagl, Lake Villa.

Amateur races: 1—Dennis Yolling, Antioch; 2—Sharrman Spencer, Elmhurst.

Semi 15 laps: 1—Roger

School Bus Safety Tips

As the nation's students return to school, it is important that every young school bus-rider realize he must be responsible for his own safety and that of others on the bus.

According to "Safety on Our School Bus," a film produced for classroom use by Encyclopedia Britannica Films, Inc., youngsters should be taught these good safety practices:

- Line up in an orderly manner and board the bus in single file; fill back seats first.
- Be sure aisles are clear so nobody will stumble.
- Stay in your seat while the bus is moving.
- Don't put anything (including your head or hands) out of the window.
- Don't play with the emergency door.
- Don't talk to the driver while the bus is moving.
- Ride quietly without scuffling or horseplay.

STICK TO IT!

Every year young folks spend in high school can be worth $17,500 to each of them, according to the United States Chamber of Commerce. A full four years can be worth $70,000. That is the extra amount they will probably earn on an average over their working lives by completing high school.

to Antioch's history.

The most complete collection he has ever seen, he says, is the Davis collection, displayed at the Mason Hotel in Claremore, Okla. It includes about 33,000 guns, some of them the guns used by early desperadoes of the West.

Maintenance of the gun collection is no small item. They must be wiped off once a month, and completely oiled about three times a year. It's a time-consuming task, and Jack's looking forward to turning it over to Jack, Jr., when he returns home next month from Korea, where he has been serving in the armed services.

Although guns are his first love, he's interested in all historic items, and particularly in any items pertaining to the Antioch area. Along with his gun collection, he's acquired a small museum of articles pertaining to the history of this area.

What makes a collector? "The hunt, I guess," Jack says. "It's the pursuit of an item you've been looking for that's the thrill."

What's he looking for now? No specific gun at present, but a rather odd but elusive item. An early ice card from one of the Antioch area ice companies, preferably Crandall's. He has the ice saw, tongs, etc. in his collection. But who keeps an ice card after he buys a refrigerator?

Only a small portion of Jack Wells' collection is on display. He has about 200 guns of all types in his collection, and has been collecting since he was about ten years old.

Almost every bore of shotgun ever made is represented in his collection. He has a 100-year-old Roper which still can be fired, with a cylinder like a revolver. Four of the original steel cartridge cases are still in the gun. "I've never seen another gun like this," Jack says. "At the time it was manufactured it was too expensive for the average man—cost about $30."

He has Civil War muskets, fowling pieces from Germany, percussion style shotguns of the 1850 era; Winchester rifles of various calibers and hand guns with from one up to six barrels.

Most of Jack's guns are in working condition; 90% of them, he says, can be fired.

Few guns have a personal history that can be checked on. Jack has several shotguns in his collection that were given to him by families of early duck-hunters in this area. Their value to him lies in their connection

While working on his master's degree, he was a part time instructor in the Civil Engineering department. He finished the year under a National Science Foundation Fellowship for Graduate Assistants.

Mr. Hansen will be employed as a Stress Analyst with the Boeing Co., Commercial Airplane Division, at Seattle, Wash.

He and his wife, the former Sandra Cremen of Lake Villa, and their 4-month-old daughter spent the past two weeks visiting her parents, and left Saturday for Seattle where they will make their home.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of this week's Bible Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science church services on Sunday.

The Golden Text is a verse from I Thessalonians: "Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you."

Episodes from each of the four Gospels will be read, covering different aspects of the life of Jesus, accompanied by selections from the denominational textbook, including these lines:

"Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage . . . It was the divine which he taught and practiced. . . . We must forsake the foundation of material systems, however time honored, if we would gain the Christ as our only Saviour" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

FASTEN YOUR SEAT BELT

After studying auto accidents that killed 177 persons not wearing seat belts, a U. S. Public Health Service study reported that 40 per cent would have lived if they had been wearing belts. In addition, 60 per cent would have been saved if they had also worn shoulder harnesses.
